

Company Description

KULTURclub by Sandra Klinkenberg offers tools and solutions to raise awareness in form of thematic modules.

A key point is to maintain compliance with the 10 Principles of the United Nations in making decisions.

For this purpose guides and accompanied for example the tool 'ways of decision making' the user based on specific questions concerted circles to stable, compatible and reliable decisions.

'Ways of decision-making' is a novum for example in the management and education literature, as it does the world currently existing gap on Question: How do I make decisions and what it takes to make them reliable, compatible and consistent.

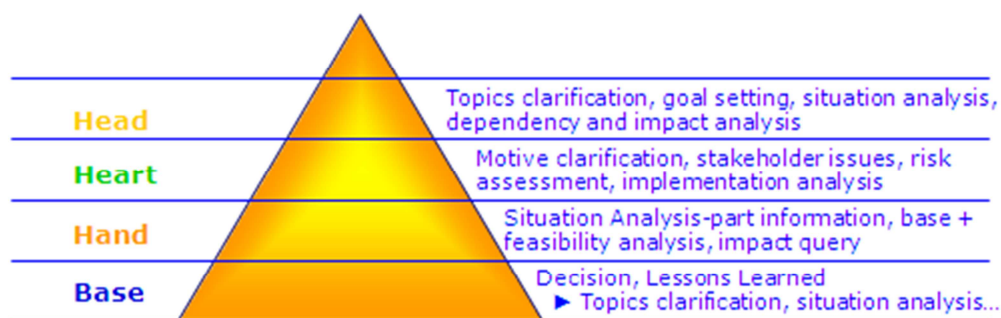

Product Description

True and reliable information are the basic building block for targeted decisions. Ways of decision-making is a comprehensive self-coaching and organizational system that supports everyone to obtain necessary information in full. Ways of decision-making saves you valuable time and provides quick solutions and high-quality results.

Ways of decision-making – Module 1:

- Supports the truth and truth of information
- Increase the reliability of information obtained
- Strengthens the binding of decisions

content

Result: stable, viable, reliable and real decisions solutions for growth and high profit

The core component of the overall system is the Module 1 of my training and coaching system. Ways of decision-making Module 1 including training and seminars as well as a software tool in license system.

Ways of decision-making Module 1 includes: a system for obtaining viable, stable and reliable decisions in a module system, which is also the basis for an organizational structure, project summary and action model along with test system to more qualitative to generate faster and solutions promoting sustainable decisions.

Ways of decision-making points to rapid and targeted opportunities for finding solutions.

benefit

Lost money is compensable, lost time is for ever away!

© Sandra Klinkenberg 2009 ff. Alle Rechte vorbehalten.

Seite 6

Ways of decision-making is a working tool, which receive the questioner and thus decisive support answers, results and solutions of the highest quality and shortest time.

Ways of decision-making needs a strong partner who brings with and supports the necessary steps to final completion and market launch.

Truth, reliability and commitment are the elements that promote the service orientation and entrepreneurship and strengthen the team behavior. A side effect of this is the strengthening of a sustainable culture of competition and additional income.

Invest in a unique, functional and useful system. You will be amazed at how quickly and easily find answers and information, strenghten you in your decision. To arrange your information-appointment you can reach me best via phone at +49 (0)172 3821570 or via email at KULTURclub@sandra-klinkenberg.de

I look forward to your feedback and remain

Sincerely yours

Sandra Klinkenberg